THE OLD OAKEN BUCKET.

How dear to this heart are the scenes of my childhood,
When fond recollection presents them to view!
The orchard, the meadow, the deep-tangled wildwood,
And every loved spot which my infancy knew;
The wide-spreading pond, and the mill which stood by it,
The bridge, and the rock where the cataract fell;
The cot of my father, the dairy-house nigh it,
And e'en the rude bucket which hung in the well—
The old oaken bucket, the iron-bound bucket,
The moss-covered bucket which hung in the well.
That moss-covered vessel I hail as a treasure;
For often, at noon, when returned from the field,
I found it the source of an exquisite pleasure,
The purest and sweetest that nature can yield.
How ardent I seized it, with hands that were glowing!
And quick to the white-pebbled bottom it fell;
Then soon, with the emblem of truth overflowing,
And dripping with coolness, it rose from the well—
The old oaken bucket, the iron-bound bucket,
The moss-covered bucket which hung in the well.
How sweet from the green, mossy brim to receive it,
As poised on the curb, it inclined to my lips!
Not a full blushing goblet could tempt me to leave it,
Though filled with the nectar that Jupiter sips.
And, now far removed from the loved situation,
The tear of regret will intrusively swell,
As fancy reverts to my father's plantation,
And sighs for the bucket which hangs in the well—
The old oaken bucket, the iron-bound bucket,
The moss-covered bucket which hangs in the well.
—By Samuel Woodworth.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The 35th annual session of the Stanford Female College will begin Monday, Sept. 1, 1902. The college is a regularly chartered institution, empowered to confer the usual literary degrees, and its graduates rank among the most highly cultured women of the community. It is also a thoroughly graded school, each pupil in attendance being placed in classes suited to her age and attainments and receiving the instruction adapted to her capacity and grade. The classes are not so large but that every pupil in each grade may enjoy at every recitation the personal attention of the teacher and an opportunity to recite the lesson. I refer with pleasure and with no little pride to the work done in the college last session. The deportment of our pupils was well nigh faultless, their devotion to study, both at home and in the class room, far above the average, and their progress in their work most gratifying to the teachers, and so far as we have heard, to parents as well. The teaching force for the coming session will, with one exception, be the same as it was last session, Miss Mattie Paxton and Miss Eileen Ballou continuing to occupy the positions which they have filled so long with such distinguished success and to the entire satisfaction of both the people and the patrons of the college. My own long and wide experience as an educator in some of the best schools in the country, qualifies me, I think, to pass judgment in such matters, and I herewith express the conviction that the work done in Stanford Female College is equal in every way to that anywhere and in any school of similar rank.

The girls and young ladies of this community have the opportunity of obtaining right at their own doors a broad, thorough, finished and literary and musical education; not surpassed in any institution of equal rank for the higher education of young women anywhere in the land.

In this connection and upon the record of the work done in the college last session, while expressing my hearty appreciation of the genuine good-will and the cordial support, both moral and financial, which I received from many of the very best people of the community amid the adverse circumstances under which we carried on our work last session, I respectfully solicit the patronage of the citizens of this town and the surrounding country for the new session which will begin Monday, Sept. 1. With their help the college will enter upon a new era of usefulness and prosperity. It may be well to state for the benefit of those who have not seen the college building, that the class rooms and the recitation hall have high ceilings, are well lighted and ventilated, and are furnished with comfortable desks and all needed appliances for successful school work. The boarding hall, which will accommodate comfortably about 16 pupils, is equipped with water works, electric lights and good, substantial furniture. As it opens immediately into the recitation hall, boarding pupils need not at any time be exposed to the weather in any way. For catalogue address

B. J. PINKERTON, Pres't.

E. C. WALTON.

W. P. WALTON.

Is a Candidate for Railroad Commissioner for the 2d District, subject to the will of the democracy.

H. H. HENNINGER

Of Wayne County, is a candidate for State Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

ROBERT HARDING,

of Danville, is a candidate for Circuit Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

CHARLES A. HARDIN, of Mercer, is a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney in this, the 13th judicial district, subject to the action of the democratic party.

For Congress,
G. G. GILBERT
Of Shelby.

THERE will be a conference in New York between Chairman Griggs, of the democratic Congressional committee; Chairman Cable, of the Executive committee, and Chairman Nixon, of the Finance committee. The real object of the meeting is to decide upon the best means of raising funds. Chairman Griggs will report upon the desirability of making a strong effort against Representative Irwin, of Louisville. He will suggest as much aid as the committee can consistently send, both in the way of speakers and funds. He is also in favor of concentrating their main effort in Indiana to secure a democratic successor for Representative Hemenway, of the First district of Indiana. Tom Taggart also reports that there will be "something doing" in Charlie Landis' district, in Indiana.

OUR people showed beyond doubt Wednesday afternoon that they are in favor of securing the Louisville Southern railroad through this county and if they will keep up their enthusiasm and give liberally both of their time and means they will stand a good show to get it. We have it straight that the Southern people have offered to come to Danville if Boyle county will give the right of way and this the citizens of that county are making a monster effort to do so. If the road comes to Danville and we are in position to offer the right of way through Lincoln it seems to us that our chances would be most excellent. Meanwhile let us use every effort to secure such inducements as the railroad company can not afford to ignore.

THE publication of the democratic hand book for the Congressional campaign has been delayed by the discovery that in the republican book no reference is made either to Cuban reciprocity or tariff revision, and that in dealing with trusts, an attempt is made to minimize their evils. These omissions will be duly noted in the democratic book.

MR. HENRY WATTERSON says emphatically in yesterday's Courier Journal that he will not be a candidate for governor of Kentucky. "Mars Henry" has friends all over the State who regret that they can not by voice and vote help the grandest old Roman of them all into the executive chair.

THE democratic Congressional committee will send 20 Southern speakers to Maine, where a vigorous campaign will be made. This is carrying the war into Africa with a vengeance.

POLITICAL.

The republicans of the Seventh district will nominate for Congress on Oct. 7.

Allen E. Smith has retired from the race for the democratic nomination for railroad commissioner.

The State election commissioners have been called to meet at Frankfort Aug. 30 to appoint county boards.

W. G. Begley, of Hyden, was appointed circuit clerk of Leslie county, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William M. Howard.

The Illinois auxiliary of the McKinley Memorial Association reported that the fund of $50,000, asked by the people of Illinois had been raised.

The final count in the Congressional race in the Second district, gives Stanley 6,107, Brasher 5,591, Taylor 5,570, Stanley's official plurality being 516.

The British Trade Commissioners are starting home from South Africa with a discouraging report. They say trade is hampered by trusts and combines, which threaten to cripple the development of the country.

It is currently reported in Washington that President Roosevelt will call an extra session of the Senate soon after the fall elections to ratify a Cuban reciprocity treaty. The treaty, it is said, has already been prepared.

The republican Congressional committee of the First district, nominated C. H. Linn, of Lyon county, for Congress, and the appellate district committee named P. H. Darby, of Caldwell county, for judge of the court of appeals.

Any assumption that Col. Colson feels like a house had fallen on him is absolutely without foundation. Col. Colson is quite capable of differentiating between a house and a federal office-holder. But the net result of the catastrophe is the same.—Glasgow Times.

Judge W. M. Beckner announced to day that he could not accept the republican congressional nomination in the Tenth district.

On account of its failure to endorse his Cuban reciprocity views, the republican campaign text book has been suppressed by President Roosevelt and millions of copies will be burned.

Capt. T. L. Huston, a former army officer, who now represents large American interests in Cuba, states that with the refusal of Congress to grant reciprocity the only hope for the island is annexation. He says that the business interests are solidly in favor of it, but that the politicians oppose the idea.

President Roosevelt has appointed Judge Oliver Wendell Holmes, of Massachusetts, associate justice of the supreme court to succeed Justice Gray, who resigned on account of ill health. Judge Holmes is the chief justice of the supreme court of Massachusetts and is a son and namesake of the late Dr. Holmes, the poet and essayist.

Following is the official vote of the republican primary held in the 11th Congressional district Aug. 4:

RAILROAD MEETING.—An enthusiastic railroad meeting was held at the court-house Wednesday afternoon. The object was to see what inducements we could offer to the Southern Railroad to build its extension through Lincoln county and have it run as close to Stanford as possible. Danville people are almost certain that the road will be built to that place and in the event it is, it seems most practicable that Stanford will get it also. Judge James P. Bailey was made chairman and E. C. Walton, secretary, of the meeting and after short talks by Messrs. J. S. Hocker, J. B. Owsley, F. Reid, R. C. Warren, W. H. Shanks, W. S. Burch, H. Helm and others the following gentlemen were appointed by the chair to select committee to secure right of way: Messrs. S. H. Baughman, J. B. Owsley, F. Reid, J. S. Hocker and W. H. Shanks. They reported in a few minutes as follows: Committee on Right of Way: Wm. Landgraf, John W. Ramsey, Uriah Albright, William Holdam, Josh Wilson, S. H. Baughman, J. E. Lynn, J. H. Carter, James Swope, S. T. Harris, F. Reid, L. C. Bosley, John B. Foster and Jake Robinson; Advisory Committee: Col. T. P. Hill, Dr. J. B. Owsley, Messrs. R. C. Warren, J. N. Menefee and F. Judge Bailey selected the following gentlemen to name a committee to secure donations: Messrs. J. N. Menefee, W. H. Shanks, J. C. Florence, J. H. Baughman and J. E. Bruce and they named Messrs. J. S. This motion was seconded and adopted. The meeting then adjourned until Saturday week, Aug. 23, when it is sincerely hoped that every man in the county who feels an interest in the matter will be present.

HUBBLE.

Elder A. R. Moore's meeting at the Christian church is drawing good crowds with great interest. One confession to date.

George T. Wood, B. W. Givens and W. H. Underwood sold some fat hogs to Jess Fox at 6.00. T. C. Rankin sold his cattle to go Sept. 1, to Samuel T. Harris at 4.00. L. P. Weaver sold some mixed hay at Danville for 89 per ton.

Miss Mattie May Hubble is visiting Mrs. M. B. Eubanks for a few days. Master Allen McClure, of Lexington, is among relatives here. Levish Harris is with her uncle, B. W. Givens, this week. Wm. McKechnie, of Wayne county, is with his brother here for a few days. J. B. Robinson and family, of Chattanooga, are with James Robinson here for a few days. Lee Rankin, of Wayne, was up a few days ago, looking for a farm, but shook his head at the prices and went back. Thomas McBeath is in Somerset for a few days on business. Dr. Carpenter has Mrs. E. T. Minor so she can ride out now, after a very critical operation at the Joseph Price Infirmary.

The Alecs were out in full force Tuesday night, removing signs and doing other devilry. The big trunk Severeance & Son had sitting in front of their store as an advertisement, was strung on a telephone pole, a spring wagon was pulled into the court-house and a phaeton placed on the steps of the temple of justice. A lot of machinery in the court-house yard was backed up against the front of the court-house until it looked more like a machine shop than a place where justice is dispensed. It took Jaller Herrin an hour or so to straighten out things Wednesday morning and he might have made it hot for the scamps who did the foolish business had he known who they were. A night policeman would stop such work, as well as do other good. Let's have one.

The N. & W. railroad has let contracts for new road and double-tracking amounting to millions.

FRESH rolls and bread daily T. C. Willis.

SALE.—Henderson Young will have a sale at Highland to-morrow.

TRY a Chattanooga plow for light draft and good work. Geo. H. Farris & Co.

DR. W. D. TARDIF, of this place, was elected grand secretary of the United Brothers of Friendship and Sisters of the Mysterious Ten by acclamation at Danville yesterday.

I WILL sell about 7,000 feet of oak lumber and 150 posts on fair grounds next Saturday, Aug. 16, if not sold privately before. W. D. Hocker, secretary Hustonville fair.

THERE will be an old-fashioned goose pulling at the colored fair at Hustonville on the second day. It will be ring 34 and a premium of $4 will be given. Five must enter and two grabs each will be given.

ROCHESTER—Miss Hendy Rothesier, formerly of this county, died in Louisville yesterday of lung trouble, aged about 21. She had made her home with Mrs. Junius Caldwell in that city since her childhood. The burial occurs there this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

THE directors of the Crab Orchard Fair & Racing Association met yesterday afternoon and declared a dividend of 20 per cent. This was done after paying all debts of the association and paying the lease on the grounds for next year. There remains in the treasury a surplus of $173 and the assets of the association in track, amphitheatre, etc., amount to nearly $2,500. This is a fine showing and we congratulate President Bronaugh, Secretary A. W. Buchanan and the splendid board of directors for their excellent work.
